What makes us different

Embracing our core values of service, integrity and genuine care, HSR places the greatest value on the relationships we maintain with each client in delivering the full array of relocation services.

Lowest Cost Overall: HSR's TruePartner pricing model represents unrivaled savings potential on your entire relocation program spend.

Transparency: Honesty is the best policy—that's why we're upfront about every aspect of your relocation, from our prices and fees to commissions and rebates. We have nothing to hide.

Financial Stability and Deep Capital: Our financial strength is unmatched, giving you solid financial backing, stability and integrity—without the headaches of interest, advance payments or relocation disbursements.

Flexibility: We know that every corporate relocation is different, which is why our clients aren't given a one-size-fits-all experience. We adapt our capabilities to exceed your needs—not the other way around.

Technology Innovation: HomeServices Relocation provides an unmatched online experience, featuring 24/7 access to manage and monitor your relocation activity in real-time with powerful analytics, self-service reporting, dashboards and more.

Highly Experienced: Our trained and certified relocation consultants have extensive knowledge and inherent professionalism—they know all the ins, outs and potential issues that could arise with your move. Experience means that we will work to prevent problems, not just solve them after the fact.

Among the few organizations entrusted to use the world-renowned Berkshire Hathaway name, HomeServices Relocation brings a definitive mark of trust, integrity, stability and longevity.

Single Point of Contact: Your employees will be connected with a dedicated consultant who will oversee the entire relocation experience, from initiation to closing. This same consultant will also work with your HR team, so nothing is lost in translation.

Culture of Care: We recognize that our employees are the lifeblood of our organization and our caring culture has created an environment that fosters encouragement, recognition, support and total teamwork.
